

ESTIMATED INTERNATIONAL STUDENT TUITION AND FEES 2022-2023

International students attending Linfield in either F-1 or J-1* immigration status must show documentation of funding to have an I-20 or DS-2019 issued. F-1 students must show documentation of one academic year of funding, while J-1 students must show documentation of funding for their entire stay (normally one semester or one academic year.) Please refer to totals listed below to determine the amount of funding students will need to show for I-20/DS-2019 issuance.

* Most short-term exchange students at Linfield apply for J-1 visas (immigration status), while long term degree-seeking students will apply for the F-1 visa (immigration status).

DEGREE SEEKING AND PATHWAY PROGRAM (LIMITED ELCP COURSEWORK)

	One Semester	Academic Year
Tuition	$23,350	$46,700
Fees	$325	$650
Living Expenses	$6800	$13600
Medical Insurance	$1800	$3600
Books and Supplies	$500	$1000
Miscellaneous	$600	$1200
Total	$33,375	$66,750

- All tuition and fee estimates are based upon enrollment in 12-18 credits of coursework.
- Room and Board estimates are based upon living in a double room on-campus and enrollment in the meal plan, as required of all Freshmen.
- Upon acceptance of Linfield admission, international students are required to submit a $400 matriculation fee, as well as a $1600 deposit, which will count towards the first semester's tuition.
- Students who will be living off campus with dependents (spouse or children) will need to provide documentation of an additional $7500 per dependent for an F-2 I-20 to be issued.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND WORK STUDY INFORMATION

- Degree-seeking and pathway students may be eligible for specific Linfield scholarships and on-campus employment. International scholarships vary but do not exceed more than 50 percent of tuition.
