Study Abroad Application Checklist

Application Deadlines:

- Semester/Year Abroad: September 29
- Freshman and late applicants: the 3rd Friday of February
- January Term applicants: the 3rd Friday of February

*PLEASE SUBMIT IN THIS ORDER

☐ 1. Application Form (pages 3-4): THE APPLICATION FORM IS FILLABLE AND MUST BE TYPED

- Jan Term Applicants: indicate your 1st, 2nd, and 3rd choices. Applications for students not accepted into their 1st choice are automatically forwarded to their 2nd or 3rd choice, depending on enrollment.
- Note: Students under 18 must have a parent's signature.

☐ 2. Student Agreement Form (pages 5-8)

- Must be signed – be sure to turn in all pages.
- Share with your parents

☐ 3. Release of Information Form (page 9)

☐ 4. Essay (see page 4 for essay prompt)

☐ 5. Unofficial Transcript

- Most recent unofficial transcript: the minimum GPA at the time of application is required: a 2.75 for most programs, but some semester/year programs require a 3.0 or higher minimum.
- Self Service copy is acceptable

☐ 6. Two Recommendation Forms (pages 10 & 11) Give these to the appropriate persons who will then return them directly to the International Programs Office.

- Preference is to have recommendations from 2 faculty. However, if that is not possible, then at least one recommendation must be from a faculty member and the other recommendation may be from an administrator (i.e. workstudy supervisor, coach, counsellor).
- Semester/Year Abroad Applicants:
 - You cannot use your faculty advisor for a recommendation, since they complete the advisor clearance form.
- Jan Term Applicants:
 - If you have participated in a prior Jan Term Off-Campus course, one of your recommendations must be from the professor who led that course.
 - Your recommendation cannot be from the professor leading the course you are applying for.

☐ 7. Semester/Year Abroad Applicants

- Advisor Clearance Form (page 12)

☐ 8. Spanish Minors Only (pages 13 - 16)

- Spanish minors must meet with your Spanish professor to complete the following two forms:
 - Faculty Evaluation
 - Preliminary Study Abroad Advising Form

- The faculty-student interviews are important in determining who will be selected to participate in these programs.

☐ 10. Make a copy of your entire application for your records

☐ 11. Submit original, signed application to (do not include this checklist):

International Programs Office
Walker Hall, Suite 120
McMinnville Campus

Selection Criteria:

Only students meeting the criteria for academic and social standing will be invited for an interview. Students will be notified by email when how to schedule an interview. Jan Term and Semester/Year Abroad programs are selective.

Interview Preparation

At the minimum, students should come to the interview prepared to:

- be able to locate your program's country on a map.
- know the countries that border your program's country.
- know the country's history, leadership and current events.
- visit the website of the institution where you will be studying (links are on the IPO website).
- know why you want to study there and what you expect to learn from the experience.

Priority will be given to students who:

- demonstrate interest in the subject matter and goals of the course or program.
 - have the necessary academic requirements
 - follow IPO's recommendations, such as attending language tables, take COMM 230: Intercultural Communication: Global Perspectives and other courses in politics, culture, etc.
- have done background preparation for the course.
- show evidence of maturity and flexibility.
- illustrate the ability to live, study and work in a group.
- demonstrate that they will represent Linfield well while abroad.

Evidence related to the criteria will be obtained from your application, interview, transcript, and recommendation letters.

Admittance to the program or off-campus course is by recommendation of the instructor and final approval by the International Programs Office (following clearance by the Dean of Students).

Jan Term Applicant Financial Information

When applying, take into consideration the costs not included in the January Term Program Fee:

- All students who are involved in off-campus courses are responsible for their own meals before departure and during and after the program, however a few group meals may be included in the program fee.
- Students should plan on spending an additional $600-$900 for meals and personal expenses, depending on location (this range was provided by past participants).
- For the Jan Term per credit fee and Jan Term housing holding fee, please refer to the current University catalog for these amounts.
- Airfare: Linfield will pay the cost of round-trip air transportation from Portland International Airport for eligible students' first study abroad experience. Please see the University catalog for details. For those not eligible, the estimated airfare costs are listed separately on the course description sheet.
- Passports and visa fees are the responsibility of each student. Linfield will help to facilitate the visa processes and students' accounts will be charged accordingly.

LINFIELD UNIVERSITY
INTERNATIONAL OFF-CAMPUS STUDY STUDENT AGREEMENT

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY AND MAKE A COPY FOR YOURSELF.

Along with the opportunities and privileges offered in a Semester Abroad or January Term off-campus study, participation carries certain responsibilities. Please read this form carefully to inform yourself of your obligations and responsibilities as a candidate. Make a copy for your personal records and return the original signed agreement with your application to the International Programs Office. Please also share your copy with your parents.

I. FINANCIAL

A. Transportation Subsidy – In its commitment to enhancing access to international education, the University invests a substantial amount in these programs. The University feels that if the Linfield community is to benefit from this investment in you, you must return to Linfield for at least one semester to share your experience on campus. Should you withdraw or not return to Linfield for the required one semester (unless you graduate), you will be held responsible for the cost of transportation to and from your program site. Please refer to the Linfield Catalogue for full description of who is eligible for the transportation subsidy.

NOTES:

- 1. Students on Tuition Remission or Tuition Exchange are required to pay full transportation costs.*
- 2. (Jan Term only) Students who will complete all required coursework for graduation by the end of the fall semester prior to the January Term are not eligible to participate in a January Term off-campus course.*

B. Meals - All students who are involved in Jan Term off-campus courses are responsible for their own meals before departure, during and after the program.

C. Payments and Withdrawal

1. Any student who withdraws or is dismissed for cause after April 1 for Semester/Year Abroad, or after May 1 for Jan Term, will have their account charged a $500 penalty along with any expenses Linfield has incurred on their behalf.
2. Any student who returns home before completing the Jan Term course or Semester Abroad program will be held responsible for the cost of the round-trip transportation and all other course or program fees.

D. Airfare - All students in the program must travel as a group since the University is able to obtain a group rate and will allow us to plan for travel logistics upon departure, arrival and return. Students who are not eligible to receive the airfare subsidy from the University will be charged accordingly on their accounts. By signing this agreement, you are agreeing to travel as a member of the group with other students in the program and have the University arrange the itinerary, regardless of who pays for the airfare.

E. Passports and Visas - Passports and visa fees are the responsibility of each student. Linfield will help to facilitate the visa application process and students' accounts will be charged accordingly. Semester abroad participants for fall and spring programs must submit valid copies of their passport to the International Programs Office no later than April 1 following orientation or the student's participation will be in jeopardy. Jan Term participants must submit valid copies of his or her passport to the International Programs Office no later than May 1 prior to their Jan Term program or the student's participation will be in jeopardy.

II. SEMESTER ABROAD/JAN TERM OFF-CAMPUS COURSE PARTICIPATION

Students may not participate in a Semester Abroad program and a January Term course in the same academic year without special permission from the International Programs Office.

III. ATTENDANCE AT MEETINGS, ORIENTATIONS, AND CLASS SESSIONS

Participation in an orientation program is necessary for all Jan Term off-campus and Semester Abroad participants. All of the sessions are extremely important, and attendance is compulsory. Excused absences will be granted only under special circumstances, and absences must be cleared with the sponsoring faculty member and International Programs Office in advance.

Jan Term: The sessions will take place each year during fall semester and the first days of January Term before departure. Students who cannot set aside approximately 5 hours in the spring and 10 hours of time in the fall and who cannot attend several days of class on campus in January should not apply for off-campus study.

Semester Abroad: All Semester Abroad participants will participate in IDST 031 – Intercultural Communication: Departure and Reentry - a one-credit course that carries preparation and reentry activities and expectations. These will be spelled out in a syllabus that you will receive following your acceptance into the program. Students who cannot set aside approximately 20-30 hours of time during spring semester, including an orientation weekend in the spring, should not apply for the program. The weekend sessions are from 4:00 pm-6:00 pm on a Friday, and 8:30 am-5:00 pm on a Saturday. Sessions for reentry workshops and meetings will be announced. For the Spring Semester Abroad programs, there will be an additional mandatory pre-departure orientation during the preceding fall semester.

IV. FINAL ACCEPTANCE

Final acceptance into the program is contingent upon successful completion of the orientation sessions and successful academic performance in the semester(s) and terms prior to departure. Additionally, you will be asked to complete a Personal and Medical Data Form, and your participation is contingent upon the University's ability to reasonably accommodate your medical needs at the overseas or off-campus domestic sites. Finally, your signature below gives permission to the International Programs Office staff to have access to your Linfield record in order to assess your eligibility to participate in an off-campus course.

V. QUESTIONNAIRES/EVALUATIONS/PHOTOS

In the interest of improving the program from year to year on the basis of student feedback, the University requires each participant in off-campus study to fill out a detailed questionnaire/evaluation upon his/her return. I authorize Linfield University and its affiliates to use my picture(s) or my likeness in materials that will be used for promotion of international programs, demonstration of international activities, teaching, and recognition of academic achievement without compensation to myself.

VI. BEHAVIORAL RESPONSIBILITIES

I am aware of expected behavioral responsibilities while participating in a Semester Abroad/January Term off-campus course. As a guest in other parts of the U.S. or in foreign countries, I agree to conduct myself at all times in a manner that does not infringe upon the customs and mores of the places in which the program is being conducted. I further agree to conduct myself at all times in a demeanor that does not infringe upon the rights and safety of other participants in the program. I agree to adhere to all policies and procedures outlined in Linfield University's Student Handbook. I acknowledge that any inappropriate behavior that could lead to possible disruption of the program, is cause for dismissal from the program without refund of any kind and without academic credit.

VII. CHANGES TO ACADEMIC AND SOCIAL STANDING AFTER BEING ACCEPTED

The offer of admission to the course or program will be rescinded if there are changes to the academic or social standing of the candidate that violate minimum requirements.

VIII. RELEASE AGREEMENT AND ASSUMPTION OF RISK

I am aware that the above-named program in which I wish to enroll and the activities related thereto involve certain risks and hazards, including without limitation, the risks and hazards of travel, including travel in foreign countries and lands; subjection to the rules, laws and procedures, legal or otherwise, of such other countries and lands; and the risks and hazards inherent in unstable political, economic or military climates; therefore,

In consideration of my acceptance and enrollment in the above-named program, I agree as follows:

1. I do hereby ASSUME ALL RISKS associated with said course and related activities, and I do hereby RELEASE, INDEMNIFY, and HOLD HARMLESS LINFIELD UNIVERSITY and its agents, contractors, employees, volunteers, officers, directors and Trustees (hereinafter collectively called "Releasees") from any and all losses, damages, claims, demands, actions or suits of any nature whatsoever, whether for personal injury, death or property damage, expressly including any and all civil, regulatory or administrative claims, which may arise out of my participation in said program and related activities, including injury or damage which may result in whole or in part from the negligence of Releasees.
2. I, the undersigned, understand and agree that the following travel policy governs my study abroad participation: in consideration of the fact that travel commitments have to be made early in order to obtain group seating and discounts, Linfield must make group bookings, with non-refundable, non-transferable and non-exchangeable tickets, for all its study abroad students. In addition, the University feels that it is much safer for students to travel as a group. Hence, students on any Linfield study abroad program (semester/year or Jan term) are expected to travel together on the dates specified on their Linfield-purchased air ticket, both for outbound and inbound trips. The airlines have also been very strict in not allowing deviations on the dates of travel. Please be aware that students who act on their own to make changes to their Linfield-purchased tickets, in violation of this policy, may face financial penalties imposed by the airlines on their tickets. Any other financial penalty incurred by Linfield or by the rest of the group as a result of one or more students making an itinerary change will be transferred to that student's account at the University. Further, I understand that should I deviate from the itinerary approved by Linfield University for this program of study, I shall indemnify and hold harmless Linfield University, its officers, directors, employees, governing board members, agents, representatives or related entities from any and all claims, demands, and causes of action and all expenses incidental thereto (including reasonable attorney's fees), based upon or arising out of any personal injury (including death) and property loss or damage caused by or resulting from any acts or omissions by Linfield University, its officers, directors, employees, governing board members, agents, representatives, related entities or any acts or omissions caused by the undersigned during enrollment or participation in any portion of the program.

I further agree in the regard that Linfield University has permitted me to deviate from the exact itinerary of the program approved by the University for the sole purpose of traveling on my own. I understand that this personal and private travel, separate from the Linfield group activity, is solely my responsibility and is undertaken at my expense, including the arrangement for any re-ticketing and any associated penalties and /or charges that may arise.

I understand that I need to arrive at and depart from the program site according to the approved itinerary provided to me, regardless of the personal travel I will be planning to undertake.

3. I do hereby certify that I have fully acquainted myself with and understand the nature and requirements of this program and related activities and that I am fully capable, physically and otherwise, of participating therein without any restrictions, reservations or limitations whatsoever.
4. I am aware that medical insurance coverage, if any, is extremely limited for anyone injured while engaging in any "extreme sports" (any kind of dangerous athletic endeavor such as bungee jumping, cliff diving, zip-line riding, etc., more broadly defined to include any activity which is not part of the University's current athletic program). Accordingly, I am aware that Linfield does not condone such activities and strongly discourages anyone from engaging in any form of extreme sports while participating in a Linfield-administered program abroad. I also agree that the release and hold harmless of Linfield University stated in paragraph 1 above applies to my participation in any extreme sports.

5. This agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Oregon, and venue for any dispute related hereto shall lie exclusively in the Circuit Court for the State of Oregon in McMinnville, Yamhill County, Oregon.
6. I have carefully read this Agreement and have signed it of my own free will. I am aware that THIS IS A RELEASE OF LIABILITY AND IS A BINDING CONTRACT between Linfield University and myself, and agree that it shall likewise be binding upon my heirs, executors, administrators and assigns.

I have read and understood the above and agree to the conditions and responsibilities related to participation in Semester Abroad and January Term off-campus study. I declare that all the information I have provided on all pages of my application is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I understand that misrepresentations or incorrect information provided on this application can result in discipline, and/or revocation of my eligibility to study abroad.
