First Semester Seminar and Advising Meetings

Students are assigned an advisor when they begin at Linfield. You should have received an email notifying you of your advisor assignment. Your advisor will explain how academic advising at Linfield goes beyond scheduling classes and preparing academic degree plans.

New First-Year students and Transfer students (who transfer fewer than 45 semester credits) are enrolled in First Semester Seminar. First Semester Seminar is a 1-credit IDST course introducing students to the Linfield University community. You will learn more about First Semester Seminar at the Group Advisor Meeting from 3:00– 5:00 p.m. and can work with your advisor to make sure you are on track with your academic planning.
